Week 4: 25.3.14

It was lovely to see so many of you in Celebration Assembly last Friday. There was a variety of good work and superb attitudes to learning, which was very pleasing.

Last week also saw St John's participating in Shakespeare Week. Each of the classes looked at a different play, and this resulted in some wonderful drama, descriptive writing, art and, for our younger children, a taste of what it would have been like to live in Tudor times. The website will be updated with photos very soon.

Please don't forget to look at our website for all the latest news, letters and events at school.

Have a good week.

Head Teacher & Head of Children's Centre

Strike Day

The National Union of Teachers is holding a strike day on Wednesday 26th March. As detailed in a previous letter, the only classes affected are 5S and 3/4H, so we do not expect children from these classes in school on Wednesday. Thank you for your understanding.

New Office Email Address

We now have a new office email address:

schooloffice2620@welearn365.com

This will enable both Mrs Morris and Mrs Weir to access one joint email address specifically for parent correspondence, newsletters and enquiries.

Armonico Concert at Birmingham Symphony Hall

A letter came home on Monday regarding an opportunity for St John's children from Year 1 upwards to take part in a concert at Birmingham Symphony Hall on Monday 14th July 2014. If you'd like your child to be part of this exciting event, please make sure that your slip registering interest is returned to school no later than Monday 31st March. Thank you.

Missing Uniform

Following on from last week's newsletter, please check at home for a coat that has gone missing. It's a black coat from Next and has a black and white check design in the hood. It belongs to Curtis in Reception and is named. Thank you.

Children's Books (Ofsted)

A reminder that if we kept your children's books from last year for OFSTED, please come and collect the books from the Rainbow Room this week.
