Week 2: 14.1.15

The first week back has been lovely. The writing journals have been extremely well received. In Monday's assembly this week, we listened to the secret diary of Mr Thomas (Mrs Thomas' husband) and I shared my journal too. Please support us in this initiative to develop a love of writing rather than it being seen as a chore.

Have a good week.

Best wishes,

Mr D Barrow
Head Teacher

PTA Non-Uniform Day

Do you have any unwanted gifts from Christmas? Did everyone buy you the same thing? Is your re-gifting drawer overflowing? If so, the PTA can make very good use of them. Next Friday 23rd January, the PTA is having a non-uniform day in return for a small toiletry donation. This could be a bubble bath, talcum powder, bath bomb or similar. If you do not have a suitable gift, then the usual £1 donation will apply.

Wintry Weather

Thank you for your co-operation this morning in the icy conditions. It worked really well having just the main entrance open. If conditions are icy again tomorrow morning, we may well do the same again, so please don't be alarmed if the other gates remain locked in the interests of everyone's safety.

Pride Points

The first winner of 2015 was Miss Blower's class, 2B. Somehow they accumulated a record breaking 91 pride points in Week One!

Reception 2015

If your child is due to start school in September 2015, the closing date for Reception applications is tomorrow! You can apply for their school place now at www.warwickshire.gov.uk/admissions or by calling 01926 742037.
